

EUROPEAN FEDERATION OF OLDER PERSONS IN CO-OPERATION WITH FACULTY OF BIO-MEDICAL ENGINEERING OF THE CZECH TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY ARE ORGANIZING

A conference on healthy and unhealthy aging of the human brain

/empowering aging population, increasing potential of healthy seniors and helping those in need/

Date: March 11th, 2023

Venue: Rektorát ČVUT, Jugoslávských partyzánů 3, Praha 6- the RED HALL 2nd floor, metro station Dejvicka, line A

Program:

9.00-10.30 am

Jiri Hozman, sub-dean of the FBMI: Opening of the conference

Dirk Jarré, president of EURAG: Empowering aging population

Pavel Kalvach, Czech Rep. :Healthy and unhealthy aging of the human brain

Arlette van Assel, Belgium: Strategic health plan for Antwerp-consequences for seniors

Moira Allan, France: Awareness of using our mental and physical potential as long as possible

Tiina Tambaum, Estonia: Memory training in Baltic states

Siiri Jaackson, Finland: Memory work with seniors from national minorities in Finland

10.30- 11.00 am coffee break

11.00 am-12.30 pm

Gabor Hegyesy, Hungary: Hungarian seniors are making themselves ready for memory booster

Monika Puck, Austria: Buddy4all -project building a bridge between generations

Maria Čunderlíková, Slovakia: All under one roof (the model institution for caring for people with dementia)

Martina Mátlová, Alzheimer Europe: How are the European countries coping with dementia?

Milos Vajs: Active way of life for healthy aging

12.45-13.45 pm lunch break and exhibition

13.45- 14.30 pm Czech Society for Memory Training and Brain Jogging

Dana Steinova: Three decades of memory training in the Czech Republic

Dagmar Maroszová: Libraries as effective tool for memory training all over the country

Zdenek Gloz: Moravian Slovakia region lives with memory training

Pavel Kalvach: Czech export for Indian memory

Renata Zelenikova, Czech Rep. Computer based cognitive training

14.30- 15.30 pm FBMI Czech Technical University

Robert Hoffmann :Implementation of virtual reality in care of persons over 80

Jan Muzik: Monitoring of our own health with a help of modern technologies

Milada Luisa Šedivcová:Activation of motor and cognitive functions as part of active aging

Patrik Kutílek: MoCap technology in the assistance and rehabilitation of the elderly

15.30 pm Dirk Jarré: Closing of the conference transfer by metro,line A, from Dejvicka station to Mustek, then 10 minutes on foot to the Bethlehem Chapel , Betlemské náměstí 4, Praha 1

17.00 pm a concert of classical music given by a piano virtuoso Radoslav Kvapil and a violine virtuoso Alex Shonert in the Bethlehem Chapel followed by dinner in the adjacent hall

No more registrations for the conference are accepted due to the limited capacity of the conference hall!

Dana Steinova

conference co-ordinator

dana.steinova@aktivnistari.eu